DAYTON, Ohio, January 24, 1973 --- The Search Committee appointed to recommend candidates for the position, Dean of Education, is now accepting applications from candidates interested in being considered for the position. Faculty and staff members may recommend candidates for consideration. Applications and recommendations will be accepted through February 23, 1973.

In developing the criteria for the position the Committee has taken into consideration the role of the University of Dayton as a Marianist Catholic institution and the need for the person in this position to provide authoritative leadership in Catholic and public education. Among the qualifications being sought in the candidates are the following:

- (a) PhD or EdD
- (b) Several years of teaching and administrative experience
- (c) Competence as a speaker and writer
- (d) A person recognized as an educator by virtue of positions held and contributions made
- (3) Demonstrated leadership in the field of education

Candidates who wish to be considered for this position are requested to notify Dr. Norman George, Chairman, Search Committee in writing. A current resume is to be included.

Persons wishing to recommend candidates for the position are requested to submit names for consideration to Dr. Norman George, Chairman, Search Committee, School of Business Administration, Miriam Hall, Room 233.

The Committee has established April 15, 1973, as the date for the submission of their findings and recommendations to the President.
